BUILDING HEALTHY BABIES: A PRENATAL NUTRITION MANUAL (Health Canada) This is a resource manual for community health workers in First Nation communities. It covers important topics about healthy eating and nutrition before and during pregnancy. The last two sections also deal with nutrition after the baby is born-breastfeeding and infant nutrition (baby's first foods). This resource is intended to give you the tools and information you need to address these important issues.	Education, Infants, Children
